

ENGLISH-LANGUAGE PUBLISHING GRANTS

GENERAL TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF GRANT AID FOR:
LITERARY / CULTURAL PERIODICALS (FRANCHISE MAGAZINES)

- 1 The following acknowledgment must be printed on the title verso page in all magazines which have been awarded a grant or which have been worked on by staff whose posts are supported by grant aid: "The publisher acknowledges the financial support of the Welsh Books Council." In addition, where the logos of other funders/sponsors/supporters appear on the title verso page, cover or elsewhere in the magazine, the publisher must include the Welsh Books Council logo in addition to the wording given above. The financial support of the WBC should also be acknowledged at all public events aimed at promoting or marketing supported titles. Failure to include a proper acknowledgement may result in a reduction of up to 10% of the grant payable. Acknowledgement of this grant and any other references to the Council must not be used in any way to imply that the Council undertakes or accepts responsibility to third parties for the grant recipient's debts or obligations (see no. 12).
- 2 The offer of grant is made on the basis of the information contained in the application and in any supplementary correspondence. The Welsh Books Council reserves the right to reconsider the grant awarded in cases where the work funded does not correspond to the schedule or other details given on the application form or otherwise agreed.
- 3 If the purposes for which the grant has been offered are not fulfilled in due time, or if the relevant conditions have not been complied with, the Welsh Books Council may require the recipient to return all or part of any grant which may have been paid.
- 4 The grant recipient shall comply with any additional conditions and scheme requirements specified in the formal offer of grant or in any covering letter. The Publisher should refer to individual funding agreements/reports.
- 5 The publisher must provide four complimentary copies of the published work to the Welsh Books Council when claiming the grant (alternatively the publisher may notify the Publishing Grants Department that the title is available at the Welsh Books Council's Distribution Centre and instruct them to take four complimentary copies from stock).
- 6 All non-printing publishers are required to retain invoices for the printing and binding work undertaken. The Welsh Books Council reserves the right to request these or any other relevant evidence of expenditure. Publishers are also required to seek a minimum of three quotes to establish the most competitive prices for typesetting and printing at least every 3 years, although more frequent comparisons are recommended.
- 7 Printer-publishers should keep a record of the prices charged in-house for printing magazines and these should reflect the prices charged to other customers for similar services. The WBC reserves the right to request these or any other relevant evidence of expenditure.

- 8 In the case of all franchise magazines, the Books Council should be informed of any financial support received towards the publication of the magazine from any source other than the Welsh Books Council.
- 9 The standard of the editing work undertaken and the franchise magazine's general quality of design and production will be taken into consideration in determining the grant offered and the final grant paid. In cases where the editing or the general design or production is deemed to be substandard, the grant may be reduced. Such substandard editing, design or production may also be taken into account when considering future grants.
- 10 All franchise magazines are required to be available through the Welsh Books Council's Distribution Centre on the Books Council's terms.
- 11 It is a condition that franchise magazines are delivered to the Books Council's Distribution Centre before or at the same time as they are available by other means to any distributor or retailer, or are available at a launch or other event (excluding subscription mailouts). The publisher is responsible for the carriage and timely delivery of magazines.
- 12 The Publisher for himself (and others) covenants with the Publishing Grants Panel and their successors in title that he the Publisher will at all times hereafter save harmless and keep indemnified the Panel from all proceedings costs claims and demands in respect of any act that might result in the breach of any of the laws of England and Wales.
